

“IT COULD HAPPEN” PACKAGE - $699

How expensive is divorce? How are retirement accounts divided? How is child and spousal support determined? How are assets prior to marriage treated? Can you keep the house?

Questions are normal and healthy. This flat-rate service package will help clarify understanding of where you are financially and what you can expect when divorcing in California.

Package includes:

- Up to 90 minutes with experienced paralegal to gather information on you and your spouse’s assets, debts, income, and expenses.
- Comprehensive budget template clarifying what you require financially each month post-divorce.
- Up to 30 minutes of review and analysis of tax returns, investment and retirement account statements, and other financial documents.
- 90-minute Zoom meeting with Laurie Itkin, CDFA, to discuss financial priorities, division of assets and debts, child and/or spousal support calculations, and other financial concerns.
- Follow-up email summarizing key points discussed in Zoom meeting and recommendations for next steps.

BONUS

Zoom or phone consultation with a certified divorce coach who will:

- provide emotional support,
- help you think clearly and make decisions, and
- prepare you with a game-plan for the "business" of separation or divorce.

TheOptionsLady.com

Watch this short video to learn more about the $699 "It Could Happen" Package.

Schedule a 15-min call with Laurie to determine if this package is right for you by clicking here.

Laurie Itkin is a wealth manager, certified divorce financial analyst ("CDFA"), and member of the national board of directors of the Association of Divorce Financial Planners. She has worked on more than 450 California divorce cases.