

Mediation Money Mentor Package - $1,750

You are getting divorced, requiring you to make the biggest financial decisions in your life while navigating stress and uncertainty. Whether you've never managed the household finances or was the one in charge of them, you're worried: What if I make a mistake? What if I walk away with less than I need to rebuild my life?

Your mediator cannot provide legal or financial advice. You're expected to negotiate asset division and child and/or spousal support as well as plan for your future, but no one has explained how it all works in real life. The numbers feel confusing, and the decisions feel permanent. You want to get this over with unscathed.

What if you didn't have to figure this out alone?

Imagine attending your mediation sessions calm, prepared, and clear on what you want and what's fair. You've reviewed your numbers and considered different scenarios. You're no longer anxious or reactive because you are informed and confident. The fear has been replaced by a strategic plan, created with expert support, and designed for your long-term well-being.

You don't need to become a divorce financial expert overnight – you just need the right support from the right expert to get informed, become empowered, and negotiate with confidence.

The Mediation Money Mentor package includes:

- Estimated calculations for child and spousal support run with you in real-time so you see with your own eyes how different variables and assumptions impact the monthly amount.
- Recommendations for fair division of assets and debts that mitigate tax impacts and set you up for future financial security.
- Tips and role-play to help you negotiate in a mediation session with a narcissistic, controlling, passive-aggressive, guilt-ridden, or unrealistic spouse.
- Referrals to vetted professionals such as mediators, consulting attorneys, QDRO specialists, divorce and parenting coaches, CPAs, real estate agents, mortgage lenders, and investment advisors so you don't have to build your support team from scratch.
- Online course that teaches you how to accurately complete your financial disclosures (FL-142 and FL-150), the most time-consuming and tedious part of every divorce.

Package includes up to five hours of consulting time, which may involve document review, calculations, and correspondence outside of client meetings. Time must be used within 12 months. This is a flat-fee package with no refunds for unused time. Additional time billed at $350/hour.*
