

IT COULD HAPPEN

How expensive is divorce? How are retirement accounts divided? How is child and spousal support determined? What about assets prior to the marriage? Questions are normal and healthy. This flat-rate service package will help clarify understanding of where you are financially and answer important questions.

Package includes:

COURSE INSTRUCTION (online) on how to gather and document all necessary financial information.
COMPREHENSIVE BUDGET template clarifying what you require financially each month post-divorce.
REVIEW & ANALYSIS (60 minutes) of tax returns, retirement accounts, and other financial documents.
ZOOM MEETING (90 minutes) discussing financial priorities, asset/debt division, and other expectations.
DOCUMENT (one page memo) observations and specific recommendations for next steps.
DIVORCE COACH choice of two options:

- 60-min Zoom strategy session with certified divorce coach to discuss memo and prepare for next steps;
or
- 1.5 hour recorded Master Class on "How to Know if Divorce is Right for You and What You Must Know to Do it" followed by a 30-minute private coaching session with instructor focused on your story and next steps.

THIS PACKAGE IS ONLY FOR INDIVIDUALS LIVING IN CALIFORNIA

1) Watch this short video to learn more about the $699 "It Could Happen" Package.

2) Schedule a 20-min call with Laurie to determine if this package is right for you by clicking here.

Laurie Itkin is a certified divorce financial analyst (CDFA) and serves on the board of the Association of Divorce Financial Planners. She has worked on more than 300 California divorce cases as either an advocate to one spouse or neutral financial expert to both.

www.TheOptionsLady.com