

“IT COULD HAPPEN” PACKAGE - $699

How expensive is divorce? How are retirement accounts divided? How is child and spousal support determined? How are assets prior to marriage treated?

Questions are normal and healthy. This flat-rate service package will help clarify understanding of where you are financially and what you can expect when divorcing in California.

Package includes:

- Up to 90 minutes with experienced paralegal to gather information on you and your spouse’s assets, debts, income, and expenses.
- Comprehensive budget template clarifying what you require financially each month post-divorce.
- Up to 30 minutes of review and analysis of tax returns, investment and retirement account statements, and other financial documents.
- 90-minute Zoom meeting with Laurie Itkin, CDFA, to discuss financial priorities, division of assets and debts, child and/or spousal support calculations, and other financial concerns.
- Follow-up email summarizing key points discussed in Zoom meeting and recommendations for next steps.

BONUS - Choice of two options:

- 90-min recorded Master Class on "How to Know if Divorce is Right for You and What You Must Know to Do it" followed by a 30-minute private coaching session with instructor; or
- 60-min Zoom strategy session with certified divorce coach.

TheOptionsLady.com

Watch this short video to learn more about the $699 "It Could Happen" Package.

Schedule a 15-min call with Laurie to determine if this package is right for you by clicking here.

Laurie Itkin is a wealth manager, certified divorce financial analyst and member of the national board of directors of the Association of Divorce Financial Planners. She has worked on more than 400 California divorce cases.